

Elementary Teacher-Leader

About Us

Allium Montessori School is an intentionally small, teacher-led elementary school serving students ages 6-12. We are located in Cambridge, Massachusetts adjacent to the Harvard Law Campus and across the Cambridge Common. We are a Wildflower school, which means we are part of a larger network of small, authentic Montessori schools with commitments to equity, community, and connections to nature in our urban environment. By empowering the teachers, we aim to make the highest quality educational opportunities available to all families, strengthen families through parent education, and contribute to building thriving communities around us. We are looking for an elementary teacher-leader to join our team starting in August, 2021. The position offers ample opportunities for growth, including the ability to take on leadership and/or administrative roles supported through coaching and mentoring.

An Ideal Candidate is

- a talented elementary teacher with a Montessori diploma or interest in getting Montessori training.
- an effective collaborator and co-teacher of an authentic Montessori classroom.
- skilled at supporting emergent readers with their early literacy goals.
- an innovative, equity-minded entrepreneur who thrives in being part of a new, growing school.
- a self-starter willing to support different aspects of small school operations, which may range from making admissions decisions to taking care of plants.
